

Katherine's Southern Cooking (Know About Cooking) (Volume 2)

This book has 40 step by step recipes that cover a lot of the traditional Southern foods that I learned how to cook from my mother and grandmother. However, I have adjusted them to use extra virgin olive oil and spices instead of the traditional method of seasoning them with salt pork and bacon drippings. I have included a full nutritional analysis for those items in a section called Your Southern Experience so you can decide for yourself which method you use to season your food. These recipes have been selected for this book because of the inspiration to create an up to date version of family reunion inspired dishes. Here is a small sampling of the recipes that you will find in this book. Appetizers Asparagus Roll Ups Cheese Straws? Bread Buttermilk Biscuits Cornbread Dressing Hushpuppies Main Dishes Baked Ham Chicken Pot Pie Fried Flounder Roasted Chicken with 3 different methods of roasting Southern Style Deep Fried Chicken Side Dishes Asparagus Casserole Broccoli Casserole Cheesy Potato Casserole Collard Greens Creamed Style Corn Macaroni and Cheese Creamy Mashed Potatoes Desserts Banana Pudding Southern Sweet Potato Souffle The recipes in this book will have the number of servings, preparation time, and total time from start to finish. Your time may vary if you are just starting to learn how to cook. There is also a nutritional analysis with each recipe based on the USDA Database, Version SR-24. So, grab your copy now and get ready to impress your family and friends with a great meal.
